

Short Form Biography for Melissa Stevens

Melissa Stevens is an executive and personal coach specializing in leadership, personal growth and development. Her clients gain new insights and perspectives, which create positive results. Melissa has 20+ years of professional experience as a corporate facilitator, leadership trainer and executive coach for Fortune 100 companies. She has an undergraduate degree in Education and a Masters in Counseling. Melissa is a Certified Professional Co-Active Coach, ACC certified by the International Coach Federation and holds certifications in numerous professional assessment instruments such as MBTI and AMSP.

Long Form Biography for Melissa Stevens

Melissa is a certified life and executive coach through the Coaches Training Institute and the International Coaching Federation. She has been in private practice since 2004 when she founded Ripple Effects Coaching. Melissa's areas of specialty include leadership development, personal growth, relationships and divorce. Her ideal clients are those desiring growth and willing to be open, introspective and honest. Melissa's coaching helps clients gain new insights and perspectives, more positive results and achievement of their dreams.

Melissa has a Bachelor's Degree in Education and a Masters Degree in Counseling. She is also a professional corporate facilitator with over 20 years experience conducting leadership workshops for Fortune 100 companies. Melissa uses her expertise to train leaders on how to empower others through coaching and effective leadership practices. She is currently a facilitator and executive coach at HSBC Bank.

Melissa devotes her personal time as volunteer for the American Cancer Society, acting as a resource to women with breast cancer. She has run grief and divorce groups in her community, and is a volunteer facilitator for Woman to Woman International. Melissa works with the Midwest branch, "Woman Within," to conduct weekends dedicated to the personal transformation of women.